Family, extended family, and others,

An email went out to Meadowview earlier and subsequently I did another video for my family that I am happy to share. I have previously mentioned my concern if my family is living in panic due to the Panic-Demic. Add to that the Meadowview email and it was time to address both.

Please again consider of all the PCA elders and others who claim allegiance to Christ, which one of them is showing love? Don't bother starting a list as it will be empty.

This email, like so many before, is being sent to many at Meadowview and Covenant Presbyterian as both have shown no love and no obedience to Christ. While the video addresses some issues, there are others that need to be addressed and those will be shared on BitChute as at least there I get some interaction. One particular area is how people are bought by position. They obtain a job, typically with credentials, and then must submit to the terms set before them or lose their perks. This is part of the idea that the institution must protect the institution. This was seen so clearly at Covenant Presbyterian that I won't repeat again here. The problem is if you allow someone to point this out, you put your position at risk. You might have to decide if your perks are too important compared to obedience to Christ. If they are, people like me must be silenced. Consider that the views on my BitChute channel have about doubled since I did the "Foundation" series, and more are to come, what will you do? (<https://www.bitchute.com/channel/shofarnexus/>) Other videos currently on my family site are scheduled to be made more public including about being an anarchist, "Handing Your Posterity to Molech" and others. Many of these name people directly, including Jim Cross, Render Caines, and Chris Bitterman. Can you point to anything untrue? Once in place, I will promote it. Do you want to know how?

As normal a low resolution version is attached so you won't be monitored by me in seeing it. Please feel free to share.

A fair warning, this can be consider a "snuff film" as I do show a clip of a man being killed. But it is OK since it was done by the US Government, right?

I love you all and remain open to dialog and reconciliation, especially with my wife!
